Transportation Options for Seniors & People with Disabilities

Valley Metro provides reliable, convenient and affordable transportation throughout the valley. Contact Valley Metro at 602.253.5000 to learn about transportation options in your area.

East Valley Ride Choice

RideChoice is available for residents of Chandler, Fountain Hills, Gilbert and Mesa and who are at least 65 years of age and/or have qualifying disabilities. As a RideChoice participant, you can receive up to $100 of taxi service per month for either $25 or $30, depending on your city of residence. You simply add money to your RideChoice account online or by mail and then contact one of the RideChoice providers when you need to travel. Contact Information: Valley Metro (602) 716-2100

Scottsdale Cab Connection

Scottsdale Cab Connection is an alternative to Dial-a-Ride that offers users more flexibility and independence. Scottsdale residents may receive up to 16 vouchers per month per user. Vouchers are subsidized by the city of Scottsdale at a rate of 80%, up to a maximum of $10 per trip.

Our mission is to improve the quality of life for those who are visually impaired through awareness, resources and solutions

Dial-a-Ride Services

Valley Metro is committed to providing safe, convenient transportation options for all Valley residents. ADA Dial-a-Ride complements the existing transit system by providing transportation to people who are unable to utilize local bus service due to a disability. Dial-a-Ride services are operated throughout the region and offer either curb-to-curb or door-to-door shared-ride public transportation service. Dial-a-Ride offers different types of services depending on the city or town in which you live.

Travel Training

Valley Metro buses and trains are designed to be accessible for people with disabilities. Utilizing one-on-one training with a skilled trainer, participants learn basic skills for riding transit, such as purchasing fares, trip planning, using mobility aids, transferring between bus and light rail services and more.
